Dear Viktor

I trust this email finds you well.

Attached you can find the exchanges of emails with PK and IT in Hungary re the meeting with PM VO. The essence is the following: We can have a tri-lateral meeting You, VO, and myself as early as August 15. But Mr. Szijarto will not be present and the PM will not make a decision re the KAZ project. We can alternatively wait till after August 25 and have a meeting with both the Szijarto and the PM and move more explicitly or directly on the KAZ project.

It is up to you. I will of course follow your judgement on this.

My gut feeling however is that it could be better to create a third option. Namely , to meet on August 15 with the PM only the two of us. I can even leave you one on one for some time during the meeting. It will be more personal, informal and intimate. I assume we can talk about the KAZ project even without final decision and create trust and readiness to work together.

If we will judge that there is a need for further meeting with Szijarto and the PM together, we can still initiate it for later date.

In any case I will appreciate it if you can inform me as early as possible what is your choice.

Best

Ehud Barak

Dear Ehud

I would like to repeat, that Mr. Orban is happy to see you and Mr. Vekselberg, but you will not be able to discuss the kazah issue with him at this meeting, since Mr. Szijarto will not be present. In fact till the 15th of August Mr. Orban will not meet Mr. Szijarto, so he can not be briefed. Any agreement can only be reached after the 25th of August when both the prime minister and Mr. Szijarto will be present.

Mr. Töröcskei will have to call the prime minister on the 11th to fix the exact time of the appointment.

Mr. Orban said, that he is happy to discuss any other issues with you on the 15th or 18th, but he would like to get the agenda.

Yours, Peter

Mr. Töröcskei managed to talk to the prime minister
this afternoon. Mr.
Orban said, that he is happy to meet Mr.
Vekselberg and you on the 15th or 18th of August .

Mr. Orban said, that since Mr.
Szijjarto will not be present, he will not be in the position to make a decision about the kazah issue at the meeting. He is going on holiday
now and will be in his office on the 11th. Mr.
Töröcskei can call him on the 11th to fix the date of the visit.

Mr. Orban asked us to give an exact agenda of what you want to talk to him about.
